The image consists of five vertical banners for trading platforms. The first banner is for teGasFX, featuring a red background with a rocket launch and the text 'Keep 100% of your Profits' and 'Instant Diamond Status from Day One'. The second banner also for teGasFX, titled 'What is Instant Funding?', explains that it's a funded trading account where the broker provides capital and the trader trades the account, showing profit splits of +10,000$, +25,000$, and +50,000$. The third banner for teGasFX, titled 'you trade', shows a laptop with a trading chart and explains that profit split depends on status: Bronze (50/50), Silver (60/40), Gold (70/30), and Diamond (100% for trader). It also notes that climbing levels takes time. The fourth banner is for FastLane, titled 'Skip the grind. Go straight to Diamond', stating that FastLane is Direct Diamond Status, allowing 100% profit split from day one. The fifth banner is also for FastLane, titled 'Same Account. Higher Status. Maximum Profits.', stating it's not a different account but still instant funding, starting at Diamond right away.
